Contribution: The gift, transfer or promise of a gift or transfer of money or other thing of value to any candidate, or an agent or treasurer thereof, to promote or assist in the promotion of the success of that candidate at any election.

Personal Contributions and Expenses of Candidates. The contributions of a candidate or the candidate’s spouse to the candidate’s own campaign are not subject to the limitations of Chapter 71, but must pass through the hands of the candidate’s personal treasurer or treasurer of the candidates’ committee and be reported as required in other provisions of Chapter 71. Personal expenses of the candidate for filing fees, telegrams, telephone, travel and board shall not be considered contributions if paid for by the candidate or spouse.

Anonymous Contributions. No campaign finance entity shall accept any contribution from an unidentified person or organization in furtherance of the candidate’s nomination or election. Any such contribution received shall not be used for any political purpose whatsoever, but shall be paid by the campaign finance entity to the Town of Chestertown to help defray the expense of the elections. If such contribution is a thing of value rather than actual money, the campaign finance entity shall determine the fair market value of the thing of value and shall pay that amount to the Town of Chestertown. All contributions payable to the Town of Chestertown pursuant to this section shall be paid within ten days of the receipt of the contribution by the campaign finance entity.

Corporate Contributions. Corporate contributions, as well as contributions from any other business entities, political clubs, political committees, political actions committees, federal committees and labor unions, are allowed. If a contribution is from any of the foregoing entities, the name and address of the entity itself, not that of the person who signed the check on its behalf, shall be entered in the treasurer’s records and in the campaign finance reports filed pursuant to this chapter.

*Contribution Receipts must accompany Campaign Finance Report.
