On _____ (date) I received in the Town Office, 118 N. Cross Street, a Certificate/Petition of Candidacy from _____ (name). The Certificate/Petition will be immediately turned over to the Chestertown Board of Supervisors of Elections. The Board will then check the petition to verify the number and accuracy of the signers with the voter registration records at the Kent County Board of Election Supervisors.

If for some reason your petition does not have the required number of signatures of valid registered voters or is insufficient in any manner, the Board will immediately notify you. If there is still time before the filing deadline you will have the opportunity to add valid signatures or correct errors. However, if petitions are filed at the deadline, no corrections can be made following the deadline.
